Mayors Summit

November 13-15, 2015

The Ritz-Carlton Lodge – Reynolds Plantation
Greensboro, GA

TO: Participant Mayors & Commission Chairs

FROM: Doug Lego

DATE: September 17, 2015

Questions concerning the future of the electric utility industry have never been more prevalent as we face numerous changes in our business. The recent rules originating at the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) are being addressed at the judicial and congressional level, by state governments and the industry. Distributed renewable energy is knocking on the doors of our local businesses and residents, and we are all carefully watching the country's political and financial arenas with an eye towards the upcoming elections and the economy. The Mayors Summit is an opportunity for you to hear informed updates on what these various developments might mean to your local community.

This year's guest speakers will include one of the country's chief economists providing the U.S. economic outlook; a national political analyst offering insights on the upcoming elections; and a subject-matter expert presenting an overview of the recently released EPA final Clean Power Plan. At the local level, we will hear about developments in distributed renewal energy in Georgia, as well as receive progress reports on state legislative issues and the expansion of Plant Vogtle Units 3&4, and a site tour is possible if there is enough interest.

The 2015 Mayors Summit will take place November 13-15 at The Ritz-Carlton Lodge-Reynolds Plantation. Please make plans to participate in this year's conference and if you are unable to attend, ensure that a person from your council or board is there. In case of election turnover, both sitting and newly elected Mayors may attend.

All conference costs other than lodging are complimentary. Enclosed please find registration information as well as a program outline. If you have questions regarding the attached material, please contact Darla Lowe at dlowe@meagpower.org or 770-563-0476.

Thank you and we again urge you to attend this very important event.
