TO: Participant Mayors & Commission Chairs

FROM: Doug Lego DL

DATE: September 6, 2016

---

The Georgia Mayors Council for Public Power was formed to promote advocacy of issues important to MEAG Power and the Participant communities. MEAG Power relies on the Mayors' voice in Washington and the State Capitol to assure the future success of municipal electric systems in Georgia.

A Mayors Summit will convene this year at The Ritz-Carlton Reynolds, Lake Oconee November 4-6. We have a full roster of speakers planned for the meeting and feel certain that you will find their presentations both informative and interesting. Our intent is to have experts in various fields share their knowledge and experiences so you can stay current on the latest developments affecting our industry and your local community. You will also receive a progress report on the expansion at Plant Vogtle Units 3&4, and with adequate participation a Vogtle site tour will be offered.

The Mayors Summit is an excellent opportunity to meet or reconnect with others in your position or profession as well as MEAG Power senior staff members. Please make plans to participate in this year's conference and if you are unable to attend, ensure that a person from your council or board is there.

All conference costs other than lodging are complimentary. Enclosed please find registration information as well as a program outline. If you have questions regarding the attached material, please contact Darla Lowe at dlowe@meagpower.org or 770-563-0476.

Thank you and we again encourage you to attend this very important event.
